2 4. At all times mentioned herein, Defendant TEK is an Italian limited liability company
3 having an office and place of business at Via Icaro No. 11, Pesaro (PU) Italy.

4 JURISDICTION

5 5. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under at least 28 U.S.C. §§
6 1331, 1338(a), 2201, and 2202. There is an actual case and controversy within this Court's
7 jurisdiction regarding non-infringement and invalidity of the '110 Patent.

8 6. This Court has personal jurisdiction over TEK, an Italian limited liability company
9 because, among other things, (a) TEK sent various communications to SSI at its California
10 headquarters alleging infringement of the '110 Patent, and (b) on information and belief, TEK
11 frequently sells product to American Honda Motor Co. Inc., a California corporation.

12 7. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(d).

13 8. At all times mentioned herein, on information and belief, TEK owns the '110 Patent.
14 A true and correct copy of the '110 Patent is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

15 9. On November 2, 2009, TEK sent SSI a letter to its California headquarters claiming
16 that SSI's automatic tire repair system infringed several of TEK's United States Published Patent
17 Applications, including the Patent Application which corresponds to the '110 Patent, No.
18 2008/0029181. A true and correct copy of this letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

19 10. The letter attached two US Patent Application Publications and claimed that once the 20 patent applications were granted, TEK would be entitled to compensation from SSI.

21 11. On November 22, 2010, TEK sent SSI another letter to its California headquarters
22 notifying SSI that it had filed suit against SSI for patent infringement, and attached the complaint.
23 A true and correct copy of this letter is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

24 12. In fact, on November 10, 2010, TEK filed suit against SSI in the United States
25 District Court Southern District of New York, case number 10 CIV 8757 (AKH) (the "Patent 26 Infringement Action"). SSI will be moving to dismiss the Patent Infringement Action for lack of 27 personal jurisdiction.

28 13. Under these circumstances, there is a substantial controversy between TEK and SSI.

JMBM
Jeffrey Mangels
Butler & Mitchell LLP

1 In light of TEK's Patent Infringement Action, this controversy is of sufficient immediacy and
2 reality to justify the issuance of a declaratory judgment regarding the parties' respective rights as
3 they relate to the alleged infringement and validity of the claims of the '110 Patent.

4 CAUSES OF ACTION

5 COUNT ONE

6 DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF NON-INFRINGEMENT

7 14. SSI repeats and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 13 above, and
8 incorporates those allegations herein by this reference.

9 15. SSI's product does not infringe, either directly, indirectly, by contribution, or by
10 inducement, or in any other way, any claim of the '110 Patent, either literally or under the doctrine
11 of equivalents, willfully or otherwise.

12 16. Based on TEK's filing of the Patent Infringement Action and TEK's correspondence
13 asserting that it is entitled to compensation from SSI based on the allegation that '110 Patent covers
14 SSI's automatic tire repair system, there is a justiciable controversy between the parties regarding 15 the non-infringement of the '110 Patent by SSI, and SSI is entitled to a declaratory judgment that 16 will finally resolve this issue.

17 17. Pursuant to the Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201 et seq., SSI
18 requests a declaration by the Court that it does not infringe either directly, indirectly, by 19 contribution, or by inducement, or in any other way, any claim of the '110 Patent, either literally or 20 under the doctrine of equivalents, willfully or otherwise.

21 COUNT TWO

22 DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF INVALIDITY

23 18. SSI repeats and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 17 above, and
24 incorporates those allegations herein by this reference.

25 19. On information and belief, the claims of the '110 Patent are invalid for failure to 26 comply with one or more of the conditions for patentability set forth in the United States Patent Act,
27 35 U.S.C. § 100 et seq.

28 20. Based on TEK's filing of the Patent Infringement Action, there is a justiciable

JMBM
Jeffer Mangels
Butler & Mitchell LLP

1 controversy between the parties regarding the invalidity of the '110 Patent, and SSI is entitled to a
2 declaratory judgment that will finally resolve this issue.

3 21. Pursuant to the Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201 et seq. and 35
4 U.S.C. § 100 et seq., SSI requests a declaration by the Court that the claims of the '110 Patent are 5 invalid.

6 JURY DEMAND

7 22. Plaintiff demands that all claims and causes of action raised in this Complaint against 8 Defendant be tried to a jury.

9 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

10 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

11 1. A declaratory judgment that Plaintiff does not infringe and has not infringed, literally
12 or by equivalents, directly or by inducement or contributory infringement, any claim of the '110
13 Patent;

14 2. A declaratory judgment that the claims of the '110 Patent are invalid;

15 3. A judgment finding this case exceptional and awarding Plaintiff its costs and 16 reasonable attorneys' fees under 35 U.S.C. § 285;

17 4. A judgment awarding Plaintiff such other and/or further relief as is just and 18 equitable.
